

Do You Know the Difference Between

YOU MAY THINK THAT A REALTOR® AND A REAL ESTATE AGENT ARE ONE AND THE SAME, BUT THAT IS NOT THE CASE.

Take a look at the chart below and see the difference for yourself.

	REALTOR®	Real Estate Agent
Is licensed by the state of Georgia	✓	✓
Is a dues-paying member of the Georgia Association of REALTORS®	✓
Abides by a Code of Ethics	✓
Offers the opportunity for grievance hearings in case of disputes	✓
Opportunity to earn designations and certifications*	✓

When you purchase or sell a home, you are making one of the largest financial transactions that you will ever make. Make sure that you're working with an expert – ask your agent if they're a REALTOR®.

*REALTORS® may choose to earn designations or certifications approved by the National Association of REALTORS® on a variety of subjects, including buyer representation, seller representation, military relocation, seniors, fair housing and diversity, international buyers, commercial real estate, and more.

Source: Georgia REALTORS®, 2021

